Nero fostered in the early days of our era. The authorities now-a-days only protect the introduction of firearms and weapons, as the best industrial supports to meet the growing wants of anarchy and bloodshed. Industry, agriculture and commerce are left to themselves, and owe nothing to the patronage or support of the Government. This want of support clearly defines the hard struggle of Messrs. Bordoni and Co. The Government of the Banda Oriental has offered this enterprising firm, should they establish their manufactory in the Banda Oriental, the following advantages:—

1st. Ten years' exclusive privilege of production.

2d. All materials necessary for the establishment to be introduced free of duty.

3d. Exoneration from all local taxation.

4th. Thirty young men to be maintained by Government, and taken into the establishment as apprentices.

The manufactory of Messrs. Bordoni and Co. is situated in the Calles Comercio and Zaballés. The establishment is specially adapted for the industry and its production. There are three furnaces of different sizes, and a fourth, a larger one, is in course of construction. There are several other departments adjoining, for moulding, blowing, &c.

There is a special deposit for the prime materials imported from Montevideo with 25 p.c. duty. These materials consist principally of sand for white glass, sand for green glass, quartz, &c.

The most interesting part of the establishment is the museum, where the mineral products of the establishment are exhibited.

The factory produces daily 6,000 pieces, large and small. The prices are infinitely lower than those asked for the imported articles.

Fifteen men and twenty boys, all Argentines, work in the establishment. The boys are happy and work with intelligence and good will. A few more establishments like this throughout the country would do an immense deal of good.

EDITORS' TABLE.

Sunday was a dull day from a weather point of view, as rain threatened all day, but only came down early yesterday morning; more of it is badly wanted both in town and camp.

The opening of the Flower Show on Sunday was not to say a success. Governor Tejedor, accompanied by several ladies and gentlemen, Minister Alcoriza amongst them, arrived with a punctuality which could not be surpassed even by her Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, but by some misadventure the President of the Comité was not there to receive him, and, to make matters worse, the workmen had not finished the arrangements, and the 'concurencia' was inevitably small. The Governor, however, took things good humouredly, and after a short stroll through the gardens, entered his carriage and drove away. Some of the papers complain that the President of the Republic, the Chief of the Agricultural Department and other high officials were not invited. What on earth has a Flower Show to say to those irrepressible politics?

The Tiro Nacional has had a grand picnic held day at Palermo on Sunday. They went down in a motor, all the Beningtons having been sent on before them, but in coming back each man carried his rifle, but there was no attempt at military parade in the city, the Volunteers walking in irregular groups of half a dozen or so. There was no display of demonstration whatever. Palermo looked very gay, hundreds of carriages lining the Shooting ground, and we remarked that nearly all of them were provided with well filled champagne corks, and at one time of the day the popping of champagne corks drowned the popping of rifles. The Itazango Battalion entertained Governor Tejedor at breakfast at 11 o'clock in the patio of Mr. García's residence in Calle Bolívar.

Answer to Comandante in our last issue:—

"By stating that she is only following the usual course of the world by keeping in a constant state of revolution."

We did not receive a single answer in the above case, but a friend who is very much given to arithmetical problems, sends us the following, which we suppose is a poser:—

"What part of 3d is one third of 2d?"

We hear that the National steamer Pingo will be put on the Rosario and Patana route, to replace the Iris, from Saturday next; mean while she leaves on Wednesday for Montevideo and Saturday for Patana and Santa Fe.

The Triple Alliance (bols) has been finally demolished by a letter from President Latorre to President Avellaneda, assuring him that the whole thing is a pure humbug. So best.

In our Obituary we publish the sad news of the death of Mr. Meredith Powell, of the Southern Rail way, whose unexpected demise has left an achting void in the hearts of a wide circle of friends, to whom he had endeared himself by his many sterling qualities. He fell a victim to typhoid fever, which seems to be alarmingly prevalent in the southern camps. The authorities ought to investigate its cause, and take steps to remove the same, whatever it may be. An opinion exists that the waters are poisoned, possibly through the late floods.

The ruction in Cordoba appears stiffer than at first supposed. On Friday 1500 rebels under Commander Iturraspe attacked the town of Santa Rosa and put the local authorities in jail. Police came from Cordoba and a sharp scuffle ensued in which Iturraspe was shot dead, and the rest skeddaddled.

A much-esteemed camp subscriber requests us to call the attention of strangers and visitors in the city to the very superior dinners and breakfasts to be had at the Universal restaurant, corner of Victoria and Piedras (altos), and at the most moderate prices. Sr. Marti, the host, is a Spaniard of the good old school, the pink of courtesy and attention to his guests.

The Opera House was filled with a good deal of the cream and some of the milk of Porto society on Sunday night, at the performance for the Bombero Arms and Ammunition Fund.

Does any one amongst our readers know anything of Barbara Ritchie, a Scotch lassie from Longside, Aberdeenshire, who came to this country in 1870, for the Bopiana Meat Preserving Co.?

If so, they would do her and her family at home a very considerable service by looking her up and sending her to us post haste, as a lot of money has recently been despatched to them, and they cannot divide it till it is known who the Barbara is above or below ground. It is seldom we have the pleasure of enquiring for people who come into a fortune, our commissions from home in this way being generally in reference to those with whom the world has gone the wrong way; although it takes an astonishing quantity of pens, ink, paper and postage stamps to persuade people at home that their exiled relatives have not amassed a colossal fortune, and intend to leave it to them some day. We had a letter lately from a gentleman in England enquiring about a 'dear uncle' who had written to him about three years ago saying that he was 'doing splendidly,' and held the position of manager of the Standard office! This 'dear uncle' must be a bit of a wag, as the pleasure of having him in our employment has yet to come. We never even heard his name before. His 'doing splendidly,' however, has incited his relatives at home to keep an eye on him, and they are thinking of coming out here for the purpose. It is to be hoped that the nephew's 'sympathetic soul' may stand to him in this case and secure him from a 'disgrace' may becloud his arrival.

Our go-ahead colleague, the Herold de America, seems determined to knock the legs under all its native competitors, as it has reduced its price of subscription to 15 m.c. per month. We much admire the moderate tone of our colleague in political matters: as for news, it can rank with any other paper in town, and the great reduction in price is pretty certain to bring it legions of new subscribers.

The Chief of Police at Montevideo has put a stop to the rocket nuisance there, by three lines of an edict. Except on public occasions no more rockets will be tolerated there, and newspapers will be forced to fall back on gongs, bells, or Mule-Steak Whistles, when they want to announce bulletins.

As next Sunday will be Commemoration Day at St. John's Scotch Church at Quilmes, and the Revd. James Smith has engaged to assist the Revd. Mr. Gebbie on the occasion there will be no morning or evening service at the Scotch Church in town that day, but the Sunday School will assemble as usual.

A duel was fought lately with blackthorn sticks at Chilivoy. When both combatants had reached the black and blue stage they shook hands, and the sores of the two invited the other to breakfast with him; the other presented his compliments and said he would feel great pleasure &c. The tone of duelling is improving.

Mr. Anthony Gomez has rented the Flower Market for 8 years at $60,000 m.c. per annum; no rent for first two months.

There was another row at the Boca on Friday night, through some witties 'demonstrating' against the Capitania. One man grazed by a bullet was the only result.

The Patria Argentina asserts that a foreign importing house has offered Governor Tejedor the featible of 100,000 gold, to purchase arms etc. The Governor sent back the cheque with a million of thanks.

The papers say that another duel was arranged for yesterday morning at six o'clock sharp, at Palermo, the principals being a Captain in the army and a Tiro Nacional man. Until the police come up to the proper mark these very sad encounters will continue to be quite common.

The gold market opened to day after Saturday's liquidation rather weaker than generally expected; it was evident that gold had remained over, and that the reaction looked for at 5 o'clock on Saturday night was more than the market can bear at present. Paper money still rules much higher than gold, and exchange was much firmer to-day than on Saturday.

The week has opened with splendid weather (telegram from Antwerp, one message will be found in our telegram column. Many of our merchants seemed to be more anxious for telegrams from Liverpool than from Antwerp, to know the result of the election. A though we have no message, we think we may say that the Liberal candidate was the day.

We received to-day from London Stock's new mercantile directory, 1880, for India and the Colonies; should any merchant require to look over it, it can be seen at our office.

The drawing of the Popular loan took place to-day at the Municipal Bank. The big prize, we regret to say, fell to the Education Board. A Glasgow friend came within our figure of the prize. Better for the loan the prize had fallen in Glasgow, and not to the people of Montevideo.

The boats meeting takes place to-morrow, it is believed there will be a most animated pugna amongst the Regatistas.

The splendid Lascor & Holi s.s. Maskelyne Captain Chevalier Harby, entered Montevideo yesterday morning at five o'clock; her mails will be up in the morning.

A vessel from Montevideo is favorable, and the false contradiction given to the rumours current about the alliance with Chile.

Respecting the settlement of the great question between the Montevideo Gas Company and the Municipality of that city, we are happy to say that the terms agreed on have been fully carried out, and the monthly payments required by the Government have been punctually paid. By this agreement the Municipality pays to the Gas Company weekly the amount consumed, and the Oriental Government pays this year to liquidate the old debt, $1,200,000 per month, next year $1,500,000 per month, and the following year $2,400,000 per month until the whole debt, $55,000,000, is paid off. Two taxes have been hypothequated to the Government, so that we have no reason to fear that there will be any interruption in the payments. The monthly consumption of gas in Montevideo is $1,800, which the Municipality pays weekly to the Gas Company. We congratulate the shareholders of this Company on its greatly improved position, it never having been in so strong and safe a position towards the Government and Municipality as at present, and we hear that the dividend of the 8 per cent per annum will be paid shortly, it only being about 6 months since the last dividend of 6 per cent per annum was paid. The expenses which formerly were so very heavy have been reduced, and on so great a scale that the earnings of the Company amounting to $1,800,000 are ample to pay handsome dividends to the shareholders. If our Gas Companies here could make similar arrangements with the Municipality and not get paid weekly, it might be all the better for both parties.

On next Wednesday Messrs Bulrich & Co. will sell the library of the late Miss Tweedie, it contains many volumes of Standard English works.

We have received from an Englishman, just arrived from Patagonia, such a very favorable description of the camps down there, and the great success of sheepfarmers who started a few years ago on Aguirre and Murga's land down there, that we strongly recommend the place to new arrivals; the land costs about 4,000 m/c per league; the grasses are soft and the flocks do splendidly. On the river Negro, about 10 leagues above Patagonia, here is a new town now called Public Mitré, and the camps thereabout are getting rapidly settled on by farmers. Mr. Woods is at Patagonia, and on so great a scale that the earnings of the Company amounting to $1,800,000 are ample to pay handsome dividends to the shareholders. If our Gas Companies here could make similar arrangements with the Municipality and not get paid weekly, it might be all the better for both parties.
